HANNIBAI I. OURNA

TEMS: -- One Dollar, if paid In Advance; if not paid within Six Months, One Dollar and Fifty Cents; if not paid within Twelve Months, TWO DOLLARS,

PUBLISHED BY O. CLEMENS, ON HILL STREET, NEAR MAIN, A FEW DOORS WEST OF SELMES' BUILDINGS.

NEW SERIES.

HANNIBAL, MO., THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 16, 1852.

way had been unable to go farther, and had probably been thrown by his companions into the larger was, that the darkness and confusion, the burglar had the darkness and confusion, the burglar had thought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of its first the present had been thrown ing the numbers present, no one so much as thought of it equation, and I trust it may be made to a given in the case of the question, and I trust it may be made to a given it in the secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of it. Each in his secret soul was rethought of its further his one.

As counter secult as the trigger was pulled.

As counter secult has demonstrated that public sentiment has given a proper to which any of direction to the subject. hat with some very small holes in it. The mode also arrested, and both prisoners were removed The reasons which influence me in calling you is which the police detected and arrested these to the station house, but from house to house the persevering detec- lay in Mahon's apprehension. tives followed the trail of each until they reached active assistant of, a notorious ruffian of the beides which it is the custom whenever an of- calman, getting another fare, drove off, and all feder is arrested and taken to the police station. thi he should be brought out of his cell and

Mr. Holford, having gone to America, left his the bundle went in, the other disappeared. The a wide area. house in Regent's Park, under the care of ser- serjeant soon found a policeman on his beat, wants. About two o'clock in the morning of and making himself known, secured his services the 14th of October, 1850, the butler heard some person attenting an entrance into the dininground. He wakened the other servants and having armed themselves, they went out on posite sides of the house and suddenly attacked the four robbers, one of whom was kepted down and secured, the other three escaptions and secured, the other three escaptions of the several shots had been fired; on servant trimed which a private sides of the house and to the police officer, for a little farther off, he spied the four robbers, and at so short a distance fination of the several should be approached by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly, convened by proclamation on the 30th August, 1852:

General Assembly of a call of section of the general Assembly, convened to the co onet actually touched him. Traces of Dionet quiet, business like manner that characterises pices so favorable to the public interests. It were found, and it was supposed that he had the fetectives, he walked up to Mahon, and told will constitute a new era in the history of Misbeen mertally wounded, and having run some him the was wanted. The robber felt that his souri legislation, and I trust it may be made to three men will illustrate our previous remarks, | Some important evidence was supplied by a my proclamation, and they refer to the subjects and show the working of a system which gleans cabman who had read in the newspapers the ac- of legislation to which it is my design to call iformation over a wide area, and combines it for practical application.

Next morning the prisoner was brought up for examination; he gave his name as Wm. Dr. frexamination: he gave his name as Wm. Dy-hour at which the attempt had been made,) a progress, and for the completion of which a se; but among the criminal population names man ran up to him, and saying that his hand had contain a progress, and for the completion of which a most liberal grant of land has been made by the company of the rank of the completion of which a man ran up to him, and saying that his hand had contain a progress, and for the completion of which a most liberal grant of land has been made by the company of the rank of the completion of which a man ran up to him, and saying that his hand had see Dyson in the House of Detention, where he still there. The wounds, however, were healand the dark blue stain of the gampower was improvement.

I submit these matters with deference to your the particular of lands made to the State of Misenlightened consideration, confident that your had been remanded. She soon rejained her ing, and returning to the natural state; so that their respective homes. Local knowledge being now wanted, the Southwark or M, division was salled life action. called into action. The woman who had gone to the prison was recognised by them as the mistress of a housebreaker commonly known by the soubriquet of 'the Doctory' the other was gallop; he instantly called to the cabman to stop, jumped out, and, though almost fainting from name of James Malion. This of course direct- chaise, however, passed on, and he returned, edsuspicion towards Mahon, and now was felt but in the extremity of his terror all considerathe power gained by a systematic watch over the criminal population. All the prisons withinthe Metropolitan Police District are visited would not enter the cab again, but got upon the by an intelligent constable from every division: box. In the Strand, he was put down,—the pleed in such a position that every man of the circumstances a criminal trying to escape, and ission, as he went on duty, had a good view finding his strength failing would most probably of him, so that in time their faces became per- desire to be driven lowards ins place of concentfeetly well known. Moreover a patrol visits ment, but would stop short of it in order to bafthe thieves' houses of resort every night, and fle pursuit, and were satisfied that Southwark records in detail all those whom they find there, was the cover he had gained; this coincided also When it was circulated through the division that with the belief that Mitchell was the man, and one of the Holford House gang, probably the the M. division were again set in motion. This made subject to the disposal of the legislature, weary, Doctor, had been arrested, and that Mahon was time recourse was had to one of those women, and the proceeds to be applied exclusively to For many days he occupied himself in the suspected, one of the patrol recollected that at who, living by the vices of others, are perhaps the purposes specified in the grant. ten o'clock on the night of the burglary, they the most degraded and infamous of the human ten o'cleek on the night of the burgiary, they had found in a public house the Doctor, Mahon, race. For a stipulated reward she engaged to upon the legislature, as to the most appropriate cars. At last he gave up the pursuit as hopetwo other men, Mitchell and Robinson, and a endeavor to ascertain Mitchell's finding place .woman, all apparently in earnest consultation. Her information was, however, necessarily at woman all apparently in earnest consultation. The sergeant of the patrol went at once to the second hand, and therefore imperiest, besides ject, and which I trust will present no barrier in quiet elsewhere. She had left him at last to House of Detention, and there in the prisoner being tardy. Three times did the officers search to a proper disposition of the question. Dyson he recognized the Doctor.' During the houses which were indicated to them, but withfellowing nights it was also ascertained that out success, Mitchell having got away before do not belong to the respective railroad companone of the three suspected men appeared at their arrrival, and it seemed doubtful whether mes, but are vested in the State of Missouri

the first point was gained, the gang was known; The next place named was a house in Little lature." the first point was gained, the gang was known; Surrey Street, Blackfriars' Load; but as it was The policy of investing the proceeds of these man was successful. He was acquainted with making a woman who had formerly lived with Making but had been described by him, and he sounded her. Whether there had been a quarrel, or whether the woman's jealousy at being supset was now over, and on going into the strength of the burgtary. All public house on the night of the burgtary. All ists to engage in the completion of the roads at whether the woman's jealousy at being supset was now over, and on going into the strength of the completion of the roads at whether the woman's jealousy at being supset was stirring within her a grant from a disposition of these lands to the respective companies, and upon such terms as will held out proper inducements to capital.

And now the long-forgotten scenes of a missing was now over, and on going into the desirable that they should never fall into the were sumken and their sight was dim. His legs the face of a woman, listening auxiously, appeared over the bannisters, and she was recommend his work to the British power.

Mr. Borekam then proceeds in his usual locid as will held out proper inducements to capital.

And now the long-forgotten scenes of a missing the strength of th planted was stirring within her, or whether the reward alone was motive enough, she consented to give her assistance, and the bargain was struck. She could not, however, learn where Mahon was concealed, for his present compan- bread poultices; he was in a miscrable state, for are to be taken for the sale of lands for another his elder children seemed to rise up from the

NEWSPAPERS.

We are got to learn that the St. Louis News is increasing its circulation, and growing in public favo rapidly—as so excellent a journal should.—It is said that John G. Treadway.

of Brunswek, has bought the Jefferson City Mctropolidae, and will here after conduct it.

Edinburgh Review for July. This very large quarierly is filled with useful and interesting matter. The following extract from one of its articles shows the practical working and perfection of the exest was the practical working and the exest was raised, and the grant that the detective series and perfection of the exest was raised, and the practical working and perfection of the exest was raised, and the prefection of the exest was raised, and the same time of its articles shows the practical working and perfection of the exest, and perfection of the exest was raised, and the wint eighal shown to her follower. The following extract from once of its articles shows the practical working and perfection of the exest, and are the follower. The follower is a special working and perfection of the exest was raised, and the short of the extraction of the exest was raised, and the short of the exemption of the exest was raised, and the short of the proper interest of the road seem of each white, by its practical that though the feelings of the two women set out together, one carrying by the grant.

The new ship, intended to test thoroughly the follower, will be the though the feel limbs a few by the grant.

This view of the subject, it is believed, will by the grant.

The restill remained one man undiscovered, by the first the police have the follower. The follower, will also dead the thoroughly the ferminal with the little bundle of clean clutters and the tho

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

together at this time, were briefly alluded to in for observation. After the examination, one of the cabman was talse, but they corresponded to the cabman was talse, but they carried to the cabman was talse, but they carried to the cabman was talled to the c his subject I invite your attention.

that the roads will be made, and it only remains forts to promote the public good. to enact such laws for their disposition, as will offer liberal inducements to capitalists and companies willing to undertake them, and upon terms which will insure the completion of the It is estimated that the lands granted amount is believed, will go far towards their completion. wretched room, Warden awoke from his heavy if properly and judiciously disposed of, the grant of these lands, a copy of the location floor was undisturbed; everything was just as of the roads is required to be forwarded to the he remembered to have seen it last, and there local land offices, and land office department at was no sign of any one, save himself, having The police, however, thought that in these Washington, within ninety days after the com- occupied the room during the night. He had pletion of the same. I do not understand that inquired of the other lodgers and of the neighhis provision contemplates any interference by bors; but his daughter had not been seen or the Legislature with the company in the location heard of. He rambled through the streets, and of their respective roads; but only after their scrutinized each wretched face, among the location, to have the proper evidences of the crowds that thronged them, with anxious eyes, fact furnished as required. And the lands, But his search was fruitless, and he returned to when selected, are, by the terms of the grant, the garret, when night came on, desolate and eeptable at a time when the question of annex-

> It is not my intention to press any opinion he meet with, and no word of her reached his disposition to be made of the lands, but only to less, and long thought of the probability of her

It is an undeniable proposition that these lands their usual baunts. It was clear, therefore, that there was not some double treachery going on. and to "be subject to the disposal of the legisknown individuals, and the police now turned a private house, kept by persons apparently lands as stock in the respective roads, and to their undivided attention to the discovery of their places of concealment. Our readers will necessary to proceed with much caution. A may be suggested for your consideration. 1 their places of concealment. Our readers will recollect our explanation of the abundant sources of information that may be opened up by judicious management: money being wanted, it an unusual quantity of bread had of late been most speedy completion of these important was under the advice of the magistrate, supplied to the house; another policeman was plied by a friend of Mr. Holfore, and the whole acquainted with the owner of the house, and conof the Southwark division being on the alert, feelers were put forth in every direction. One man was successful. He was acquainted with lodger was. While the parley was going on, State, shall be of an indirect character, such as white signal shown to her follower. In this way the whole of London was traversed, and at population, and a special instrument for each length they reached a public house in the Kings-length they reached a public house in the board was covered we now note that of our steamships and steamships are steamships and steamships are steamships and steamships and steamships and steamships are steamships and steamships and steamships are steamships and steamships and steamships are steamships are steamships and steam authorized to secure the payment of any bonds take them—and though the little was sitting alone in the cuts.

it may issue, by a deed of trust upon the lands, itself, he knew that he was sitting alone in the cuts.

The Jew's-harp without a Master. taking care to recite in the deed, or otherwise deserted street, watching the rain drops as they secure the prior lien of the State, to which it pattered on the stones; and there were none to > pledged for the redemption of the bonds, nor in the night air; he knew not what or why. Foo. whatever with such a loan, further than to allow the company full power to hypothecate the lands burst from his lips; and his hands sought to Essay on Tediousness, pp. 2264, dedicated to > der to prevent a monopoly of them, which may prove detrimental to the best interests of the country, the company should be required after himself, condemned to wander day and night, in A Toast.—At a R a given time and at stated periods, to offer these those dreadful streets, had sometimes gone dis- of Independence Day, the following sentiment lands for sale, and from time to time to do so, tracted with their loneliness. He remembered was proposed by Lieut, John B. Herndon:

constructing, completing and finishing the road, into a corner, and held his breath, as the patrol of wholesome prescriptions, and the governor in such manner and time, and upon such conditions as may be agreed upon; a release of the with the hope of liberty and life half so eagerly the lock of character, the index-finger of public deed of trust, and a removal of the incumbran-ces thereby created, only to be executed upon a full compliance with the contract or stipulations he remained unobserved; and after waiting till contained in the deed.

immunities thus to be conferred, the company neath the gloomy arch that forms the landing a leech. After trying several remedies, a pow-noticed by the police that two women were watching the proceedings with an intensity of On the hand being examined, it was evident not be guard against the contingency of at the same time to guard against the contingency of at the same time to guard against the contingency of at the same time to guard against anxiety which betrayed a personal interest in only that the wounds had not been occasioned the issue. Slight as the chance was, it was not neglected, and they were immediately marked by the bite of a dog, and therefore his story to the cabman was false, but they corresponded to the cabman was false, but they corresponded to > road, is of a character, before it can be made a wise disposition of the important subject to attention at the present session, with the assu-

AUSTIN A. KING. JEFFERSON CITY, August 31st, 1852.

THE FATE OF A DRUNKARD.

When the dim and misty light of a winter's morning penetrated into the narrow court, and to near a million of acres to each road, and, it struggled through the begrimed window of the sleep, and found himself alone. He rose and By the terms of the act of Congress, making looked around him; the old flock mattress on the same manner, but no traces of his daughter did starve alone. He ground his teeth and cursed that had sheltered him for many months. He sandwiches and mutten pies which are here slept under arches and in brick-fields—any- consumed. Valuable pebbles are found upon to show by an array of facts and figures, that a where where there was some warmth or shelter, the beach, and the guif stream washes up a from the cold and rain. But in the last stage of number of cats and drawned pigs, together with from Weston via Platte City, Liberty, Richdeorstep, faint and ill. The premature decay first visited by Mr. Harding, commonly called of vice and profligacy had worn him to the bone. the 'Father of the Fishermen;' and it is very portant road in the State, will pay better, and is twenty miles further on the road, and so on, and so distinct the were that he could touch and feel them. Looks that he had long forgot-er woman washed his clothes, and on the plan was laid accordingly. When Saturday night came, the false friend, and he confessed his many feel to him, and a surgeon as the road as the road, and so on, and so will be seen allusion is made in a subsequent care for or help him.

ould the State be connected in any manner Hark! A groan! Another! His senses were for the redemption of any bonds it may issue.

If the lands are thus disposed of, then in orand he shricked for help till his voice failed him.

Congress, by a member.

Chatter for Chatterboxes, by Chatillon Chatto have heard many years before, that a home. Dollar Newspaper (Phila). As counter security to the State, the company to which any of these lands are conveyed, the sound of footsteps had died away in the dis-hollow murmurs from behind urged him onward. He retreated a few paces, took a short run, a desperate leap, and plunged into the river.

the water's surface; but what a change had taken place in that short time in all his thoughts and feelings! Life, life, in any form; poverty, companion, and both were tracked across the river into Southwark: there they separated; these curious pieces of circumstantial evidence but from house to house the public interests in making the source of circumstantial evidence and the Hannibal and St. Joseph rail-tend to promote the public interests in making fought and struggled with the water that closed bridge, and he sank to the bottom.

the river's bank, the lights on the bridge under horse, we know not-it may, however, be which the current had borne him, the black worth the trial. water and the fast flying clouds, were distinctly water and the fast flying clouds, were distinctly visible — once more he sunk and again he rose of the best correctives of bad habits, either in heaven, and reeled before his eyes, whilst the treatment indicated above may be efficacious. water thundered in his ears, and stunned him with the furious roar.

A week afterwards the body was washed ashore some miles down the river, a swollen better baked. Soak for an hour in clean water, and disfigured mass. Unrecognized and unpi-tied, it was borne to the grave—there it has long flour batter, and lay in a deep dish, with sticks ation is before the public. Referring to Cory-phœus Boreham's "Life on the Ocean Wave," we find, pp. 163-164, the following account:-"The Sandwich Islands lie a few miles to the north of Boston Harbor, and are principally remarkable for the growth of sea weeds. in the interior, the celebrated chick-weed plant, been tried to supersede it, but not one among all He begged his bread from door to door. Every half-penny he could wring from the pity or credulity of those to whom he addressed himself, was spent in the old way. A year passed over depot where pic-nic parties very frequently of the could way and the cold way. A year passed over depot where pic-nic parties very frequently of the cold way. A year passed over depot where pic-nic parties very frequently of the cold way. A year passed over depot where pic-nic parties very frequently of the cold way. is head; the roof of a jail was the only one stop; and take their same from the quantity of poverty, disease and houseless want, he was a straw and beaver hats, supposed to have been drunkard still.

THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

Brunswick, Keytesville, Glasgow, Fayette, Columbia, Fulton, Danville, At last, one bitter night, he sunk down on a who had bricks therein. These islands were to St. Charles, there to connect with one to St.

Mr. Boresam then proceeds it of the natives, says, in consequence of numerous applications and we recommend his work to the attention of for passage to Liberia, it is intended to send And now the long-forgotten scenes of a mis- and we recommend his work to the attention of Lave and Provender.

VOL. X--NO. 3

Manual of Sword Practice, illustrated with Grebo Made Easy, in Six Lessons, by E. G.

Digg, U. G. part of this communication.

Suddenly he started up in the extremits of A Collection of Choctaw Poems, with Exterror. He had heard his own voice shouting planatory notes in Chinese, by Sing-Sing Foo-

Prof. Sdotchkelrxy's Pronouncing Diction-

A Toast .- At a Mason county celebration

the tripped and fallen just as the trigger was pulled, and had received no injury, except that his hand, striking the end of the bayonet, had been slightly out, as well as grazed by a couple of shot and been slightly out, as well as grazed by a couple of shot and been selection to the subject—leaving nothing now to be behind the policeman at the door. At a signature of the policeman at the door, and the blood came from one of the robbers, who had been severely wounded in the head and neek by a random discharge of small shot. The third man was unburt; and nothing was found on the prefect submission went to the bar, where the was searched and haddenfed; Robinson was the willing to sacrifice Mahon derived the unmoneyed boy's direction to the subject—leaving nothing now to should, simultaneously with the conveyance, should, simultaneously with the conveyance, the hermit of the conveyance, to the subject—leaving nothing now to direction to the subject and the door. At a signature of the policeman at t

In consideration of the grants, privileges and tance, he cautiously descended, and stood besay in the say of the criminal population names are assumed one day to be discarded the next, as afford no clue to the identity of the individual. The first step taken was to place among the crowd some keen observers to watch, not the proceeded, and the specialors. As the examination proceeded, and the special proceeded, and the special proceeded, and their varying embedies beam excited by the dramatic way in which they tory unfolded itself, and their varying embedies by the profice of the police office, he was noticed by the police that two women were noted by the police that two women were the special process. As the examination of the funds or proceeded and the special process. It remains now for the General Assembly to take such legislative action as will secure the proper application of the funds or proceeded in the police of the special process. It remains now for the General Assembly to take such legislative action as will secure the proper application of the funds or proceeded in the process intended by the grant of land has been made by the should be administered, when the special copy into the State Treasuble to put the state forms the landing dependence of the proper of giving an early opportunity for enacting such laws as may be necessary, effectually and economically to improve and supply the grant of land has been made by the should be active the proper of giving an early opportunity for enacting such laws as may be necessary, effectually and economically to improve and the proper of giving an early opportunity for enacting such laws as may be necessary, effectually and economically to improve and the proper of giving an early opportunity for enacting such laws as may be necessary, effectually and economically to improve and the proper of giving an early opportunity for enacting such laws as may be necessary, effectually and economically to improve and the proper of giving an early opportunity for enacting such laws as may be necessary, effectually and economically to improve and the proper of giv any injury whatever to the man .- Dol. News,

Balking of Horses.

We have always looked upon the habit of balking in horses as incurable. We have seen Not five seconds had passed when he rose to it lately stated that the Mexicans overcome this propensity by the following kindly treatment: The driver approaches the head of the horse, pats him gently on the neck and head, speaking soothingly to him all the while; after a few minutes, when the horse's sulky humor somewhat over his head, and screamed in agonies of ter- subsides, the driver commences to blow very available, to require legislative action, and to which I have felt it my duty alone to call your ror. The curse of his own son rang in his gently upon the horse's nostrils, which he conears. The shore-but one foot of dry ground- tinues to do for a few minutes, then soothes and The grant of these lands renders it certain rance of my cordial co-operation in all your ef. he could almost touch the step. One hand's pats him again, and repeats the blowing up the breadth nearer, and he was saved—but the tide nostrils, when, it is said the animal will be bore him onward, under the dark arches of the found to have been subdued. This is the plan, also as stated by Catlin, that the buffalo calves Again he rose and struggled for life. For one are tamed by the Indians; whether it will prove nstant-for one brief instant-the buildings on successful in conquering this radical fault in the -bright flames of fire shot up from earth to man or beast; and it may be, that the gentle

Many persons boil hams. They are much under to keep it up out of the gravy. When fully done, take of the skin and batter crue ted upon the flesh side, and set away to cool. You Some account of these islands will prove ac- will find it very delicious, but too rich for dys-

Tan, in small quantities, is said to be an exrellent medicine for hogs.

Semething Wanted for Engravers.

ly re-Clam is much wanted. This wood is wary scarce; it and syster shells are found in abundance, scat-tered along the shore; and on the high ground Turkey and Italy; various kinds of wood have so prized by Canary birds, waves with prodigal the varieties tried, has the same qualities. luxuriance. The native inhabitants of the islands Hardness is not the only quality, it must be close RAILROAD .- We purpose, in our next Issue, railroad ought to be built, and must be built, Louis. Boyond all question it is the most imdemanded by higher considerations than any other road in the State.—Liberty Tribune.

When young men have nothing to live upon but love, they get married—just as if hugging and returns are official, except Reynolds, and the